Nonfiction Contest Guidelines

1. PRISM's writing contests are not open to students or faculty of the University of British Columbia's Creative Writing Program (this includes the UBC Optional Residency MFA Program). In order to enter, UBC alumni cannot have taken a UBC Creative Writing Program course during the previous two years.
2. Entries must be postmarked no later than November 30, 2011.
3. Entries must not exceed 6,000 words, typed (12 pt font), double-spaced, on 8.5"x11" white paper.
4. The entrant's full name, address and the title of the manuscript must appear on a separate cover page. The title of the manuscript should appear on each page of the manuscript, but the author's name should not.
5. All entrants will receive a one-year subscription to PRISM international. Current subscribers will receive a one-year extension to their subscription.
6. The entry fee is $28 for one manuscript of short fiction, plus $7 for each additional manuscript. Fees must be paid in Canadian funds.
7. Entries must be original, unpublished material, not under consideration elsewhere. PRISM will purchase First North American Serial Rights for all work accepted for publication.
9. Works of translation are eligible.
10. Once an entry is received, no revisions will be allowed, and entry fees become non-refundable.
11. The winner will be notified by January and published in the Winter Issue of PRISM.
12. The shortlist will be made available on our website.
13. All winners will be notified by email. Please do not include SASEs. Please note that manuscripts will not be returned.
